

Jennifer Gumbel

Legacy Bullhorn, Author, Speaker, Podcaster,
Attorney, Creator of An Organized (after)Life

Who are you?

I'm Jennifer Gumbel, an estate planning attorney and legacy bullhorn. I have a compulsion to help people understand that legacy is something everyone has and they're creating it everyday. I give the people the tools to understand, once they wrap their heads around their own mortality, how to change their life.

What do you talk about?

I talk and write about anything involving legacy. It's my superpower. This includes topics like financial affairs, and also the broader sense of what you will be remembered for. How you live changes when you understand your time is a limited resource. I help people understand just that.

- estate planning
- organization
- mortality
- death anxiety
- legacy
- parenting

As seen or heard...

What are people saying?

Jennifer made her topic fun and relatable.

Best presentation on this topic!
EVER Thanks for the humor and simple approach. I get it! And motivated to act.

Humor and steady pace.
Simply outstanding!
Learned sooo much.
